

Dr. (Mrs.) Pratibha Bhaskar Dhake

Dr. Pratibha Bhaskar Dhake is a distinguished educationist, an accomplished scholar, and a dedicated torchbearer of Yoga and Physical Education. Born on 27 December 1969 in Nandura, District Buldhana, Maharashtra, she has devoted her life to nurturing education, promoting holistic health, and empowering society through knowledge and discipline. With remarkable academic achievements are B. Com., M. Ed. (Physical Education), Diploma in Yoga, SET, and Ph. D. and she has carved a respected place for herself in the academic and research community.

Dr. Pratibha Dhake's intellectual contributions are reflected in her extensive research and publications in reputed local, national, and international journals. Her work beautifully bridges academic excellence with practical wisdom, emphasizing the harmonious development of body, mind, and character. As a passionate educator, she has inspired countless students to embrace discipline, wellness, and purposeful living through Yoga and physical education.

Beyond academics, Dr. Pratibha Dhake has played a significant role in institutional and social development. As an active member of the Gurunath Foundation and a former member of the Board of Sports, K. B. C. N. M. University, Jalgaon (2018–2022), she contributed meaningfully to strengthening sports culture and educational progress. Her leadership reflects vision, dedication, and a commitment to excellence.

In recognition of her exceptional service, unwavering dedication to teaching, and valuable social contributions, Dr. Pratibha Dhake has been honored with 29 national and state-level awards. Among the most prestigious are the Swami Samvidanand Saraswati National Award, the All India Leva Patidar Youth Foundation Ideal Teacher Award, and the National Youth Award 2021 and each a testament to her inspiring journey and impactful work.

Currently, she serves with distinction at Smt. G. G. Khadse College, Muktainagar, District Jalgaon (Maharashtra), under the Muktainagar Taluka Education Society. She also holds the esteemed honorary position of Vice-Chancellor at Brahmand Jyotish Gyanpeeth, Shrirampur, Ahilyanagar, extending her influence in academic, cultural, and spiritual spheres.

Hailing from Rajore, Taluka Yawal, District Jalgaon, and presently residing in Muktainagar, Dr. Pratibha Dhake is widely admired for her innovative vision in Yoga and sports education, her compassionate approach to teaching, and her tireless service to society. She stands as a shining inspiration in the fields of women empowerment, education, and holistic health, embodying dedication, wisdom, and the spirit of selfless service.